A Clean Kill in Tokyo | Barry Eisler
A clean kill in Tokyo was enjoyable. I've read some reviews which state the second half is significantly better than the first and on the whole I'd agree with that. Not being a Japanese speaker, I found I could not pronounce (properly) the constant words, phrases, speech and place/peoples names but that didn't stop me trying and enjoying the book regardless.

A Clean Kill in Tokyo (John Rain 1): Barry Eisler
A Clean Kill in Tokyo/Rain Fall. A Barry Eisler Novel. By Mark Wilkes. Barry Eisler is immensely skilful at making you feel like you are in the novel, the intricate detail and passion that he uses to set a scene is second to none and he must be commended for that; however, this is also my biggest complaint with this particular novel.
