Ironically, he investigates the death of a Sherlock Holmes- wannabe, obsessive to the point of recreating the great detective's living room in his home. He died from a close-range gunshot wound. The murder weapon is not found in the scene although everything other pieces of evidence suggest that it was a suicide.

"CSI: Crime Scene Investigation" Who Shot Sherlock? (TV ...

After "Who Killed Sherlock Holmes", I cannot imagine another reader for the "Shadow Police". "Who Killed Sherlock Holmes" was a audible page turner and I was sorry to reach the denouement and a little sad to hear the ever annoying "Audible Hopes you have enjoyed this Book". Luckily, the plot and ending of this third book would indicate that Cornell has another installation of the Shadow Police well in mind if not yet on paper.
